Forbidden Label

"This product was manufactured/assembled in 'host country' with materials originating from 'host country/countries'. Workers were paid a living wage and granted all the rights, privileges, protections and dignities of ordinary citizens. Host governments and infrastructures were supported by regional and local taxation to support adequate sanitation, health care, education, transportation and security services. All aspects of production have been engineered toward zero environmental degradation, protection of biodiversity, protection of endangered organisms and protection of unique ecocultures.

This product will cost pennies more and shave fractions of points from profit margins."

Will we ever have the freedom to make our own choices?

-27 October 2001

Venus With Child

I could not have believed

She would be even more beautiful

-23 January 2002

Heroes And Villains

Black hats, White hats
Injuns, Niggers, Gooks

Modern day witches
Sporting dangerous beliefs

Demons served up
By the latest corporate clown

"Would you like some resources with that revenge?
How about some living-space for our friends?"

Performances appearing daily and at intervals
In your living room drive-thru window

-27 October 2001, revised 02 February 2002

Yellow Orb

They would ask:

Have I loved well?

Have I loved enough?

Drawn into the brilliance
of a descending yellow orb.

-09 March 2002

Venus Defilo

Sculpted as an artist's conception
Of God inhabiting the form
Adult Female Human

Interpreted by so-called Men in their time to Reinforce their own distortion

-07 April 2002

Thank You

You made me glad

To be alive

To have this pair of eyes

To see

-06 May 2002, revised 07 May 2002

The Prince

Dear Prince
Such a little book
So much misunderstanding

Cliche to a word, Machiavellian
A description of the ways of Power
Without qualm of Morality

At worst, Devil's Advocate
At best, the work Satire,
The man an Ironist

Gripping a blade of light
Piercing mortal flesh
Drawing into one's own heart

Exposing the end game
Extinguishing the perversion
Of the Original Betrayal

-07 June 2002

The Unnamed

"Ved du godt der jeg elsker dig?"

Is it that easy?

A collection of words

That could mean anything

-24 April 2002, revised 15 August 2002

Nation Of Thieves

Before the quiet imbedment of a corruption called corporate welfare
Fostered global social, economic and environmental irresponsibility

Before the massacre pits of men, women, children, animals and artifacts
Were officially obscured to conceal the purpose and scope of genocide

Before the passing of the last Guardian, protector of all from abuse of power
And an empire of light crumbled from an evil beyond all comprehension

This land was filled with cultures integrating body, mind, soul and earth
And every flora, every fauna, every geographical feature had a name

-14 October 2002

Frontier

Little Moron's got his jammies packed
Preparing for an overnigher
He's helped to rip off Pala-stein
Now he wants to do Ara-kk...

-13 November 2002, revised 24 December 2002

Influence Of Shadows

Instead of serving in Vietnam a white boy shreds documents in CIA archives then weasels into the highest office of public power

A black white boy makes himself useful as a Shabbes goy then as a general

'Intelligence' has less to do with being smart and more to do with engineering desired results

A declaration of war, a compliant public and the collusion of corporate media solidify into the most effective propaganda machine of all time

America! America! Supreme over all!

-12 February 2003

Harsh Reality

Georgie goygie

Petroleum pie

"Free" the Arakki's

And make them die

-02 April 2003

Evidently Inconsequential

Who knows the difference between
Love's arrested affection
And indifference?

A void nothingness
And reflection of colour
Out into the vast Universe

-05 June 2003

Threshold Of Enlightenment

That One can appreciate

The fragile connections

We have with Everything

-14 January 2004

Empath

"I want more... of this..."

-25 December 2006
